

Madrid:

Located in the heart of the Iberian Peninsula, Madrid is Spain's capital. Here the modern co-exists with the historical in a city that offers a wide range of cultural and artistic highlights. Near Madrid lies the Royal Monastery of San Lorenzo de El Escorial, an impressive palace and monastery complex built by Philip II and considered one of the eight wonders of the world. The Aranjuez Royal Residence, a former royal retreat, is nearby. UNESCO has declared both historical sites as World Heritage Landscapes. The beautiful city of Alcalá de Henares, a World Heritage Site, is a short step away

Salamanca

Salamanca:

The city of Salamanca, World Heritage Site and Cultural Capital of Europe in 2002, is known for some of the most beautiful historical and architectural landmarks in Spain. The Plaza Mayor, the plateresque style of the Cathedral, the facade of the University, and the Church of San Esteban are just some of its must-see sites. The city is situated along the famed Silver Route taken in the early Middle Ages by the Al-Andalus Mozarabs to make pilgrimages to Santiago de Compostela. It is also part of the Castilian Language Route, which includes the most significant locations in the cradle of Castilian Spanish and its evolution throughout Spanish history.
